Case: 77960/Appeal: 4059
23 December 2016

STEVEN AFTERGOOD
1725 DESALES ST NW STE 600
WASHINGTON DC 20036

Dear Dr. Aftergood:

This responds to your letter, dated 8 October 2014, appealing the National Security Agency/Central Security Service's (NSA/CSS) denial of information under your 10 March 2014 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Defense for "a copy of any notifications to Congress that may have been transmitted by DoD in the past 12 months concerning authorized public disclosures of intelligence information."

I have reviewed your request, the Chief of the FOIA Office's response to you, your appeal letter, and the responsive document. Further, a line-by-line review of the document has also been conducted on appeal. As a result of my review, I have granted your appeal in part.

The withheld information continues to be currently and properly classified in accordance with Executive Order 13526. The information meets the criteria for classification as set forth in subparagraph (c) of Section 1.4 of Executive Order 13526 and remains currently and properly classified TOP SECRET as provided in Section 1.2 of the Executive Order. As such, it is exempt from disclosure pursuant to the first exemption of the FOIA. The information is classified because its disclosure could reasonably be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security.

In addition, this Agency is authorized by various statutes to protect certain information concerning its activities. We have determined that such information exists in this document. Accordingly, those portions are exempt from disclosure pursuant to the third exemption of the FOIA, which provides for the withholding of information specifically protected from disclosure by statute. The specific statutes applicable in this case are Title 18 U.S. Code 798; Title 50 U.S. Code 3024(i); and Section 6, Public Law 86-36 (50 U.S. Code 3605).

Since your appeal is denied in part, you are hereby advised of your right pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(4)(B) and 5 U.S.C. §552a(g)(1)(B) to seek judicial review of my decision in the United States District Court in the district in which you reside, in which you have your principal place of business, in which the Agency records are situated (U.S. District Court of Maryland), or in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,
